OVER-NIGHT ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS

PREPARING FOR WAR ON CANAL TOLL MEASURE

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Determined to begin the fight in earnest for the repeal of the free toll law in the house Thursday, the administration forces kept the house in session until late last evening.

Representative Ainey's resolution calling on the president for information regarding the protection being according the lives and property of foreigners in Mexico will probably come up in the house and be the one question discussed by that body in its session today.

In the meantime all plans were completed yesterday for the house to take up the Shilms bill repealing the free toll clause in the Panama canal toll law.

The Democratic leaders aligned on both sides of the issue have marshaled their forces for the fray and are prepared for the arguments which are expected to follow the calling up of the measure.

DID NOT EXPECT TO DO ANY FIGHTING

LONDON — Westminster continues to be a seething caldron over what the liberals now denounce as a "muti-tude of army aristocrats" against a democratic government. The fact has been established that from all the evidence obtainable General Gough and other officials of the 3d Cavalry demanded and obtained written assurances that they would not be ordered to fight Carson's Ulster volunteers and that these assurances were obtained largely through the personal intervention of King George.

REBELS REPORT KILLING MANY FEDERALS

CHIHUAHUA, Mex. — It was reported here last night that there is still fierce fighting between Villa's rebels and Velasco's federals at Gomez Palacio. The rebels are said to have captured a stone railroad roundhouse near the central part of the fight and are battling from it. The rebels claim the federal dead is several hundred but will not make public their own losses. It is learned, however, that the rebels have at least 50 wounded.

DID NOT INTEND TO KILL CALMETTE

PARIS. — "I never intended to kill M. Gaston Calmette," I only wanted to give him warning," was the assertion made yesterday by Madame Cal-laux, as a climax to her dramatic recitel of the story and the events preceding the shooting of the Figaro editor. The woman was being arraigned for the murder of Calmette. The courtroom was crowded, but not demonstrative. Special guards were stationed about the place to preserve order in the event of a demonstration.

CARRANZA DEPORTS 600 CITIZENS

NOGALES, Ariz. — Six hundred citizens of the state of Sonora, suspected of being in sympathy with President Huerta and the federal cause, have been ordered deported by General Carranza of the Constitutionalists. Twenty-five reached here today from Hermosillo. All their property has been confiscated and they were ordered to leave on penalty of death.

INJURED IN RIOT.

BELFAST, Ireland. — A party riot occurred in Oranac Square last night.
Stones and missiles were thrown, clubs were used and shots were fired. number of persons were injured and several arrests were made.

KNOWLEDGE THAT IS NOT IN BOOKS

'Howlers' About Gongs, Cows, Monks, et al. By Brit- ish Schoolboys

[By Latest Mail]

LONDON. Huddled knowledge among school boys has seldom reached such delicious pitch as in a "howler" quoted in the University Correspondent. It is as follows: Gong is the masculine of belle and vicar of vixen.
Echoes of Sunday school treats are seen in:
The mineral wealth of a country is ginger beer and lemonade.
And a smattering of modern topics had evidently been acquired by the young hopefuls who wrote: An appendix is a portion of a book which nobody has yet discovered to be of any use.
The flannelette peril means petticoat government.
Other amusing "howlers" quoted include the following: Much butter is imported from Denmark because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.

Finally James II. gave birth to a son, and so the people turned him off the throne.

After twice committing suicide, Copper lived till 1809, when he died a natural death.

The trope of cancer is a painful and incurable disease.

When Chaucer describes the Prioress as amiable of port he means that she was full of wine.

When the last French attack at Waterloo proved a failure Napoleon turned very pale and rode at full gallop to St. Helena.

The Mediterranean and the Red Sea are joined by the Suez Canal.

Milton was called the father of English poetry because he was blind and his daughter did the writing for him.

The Minister of War is the clergyman who preaches to the soldiers in the barracks.

Woman's suffrage is the state of suffering in which they were born.

A candidate for the civil service must be a neutralized British subject.

The immortal William is a phrase applied to the German Emperor.

Julius Caesar was murdered in the Cinema House.

Milton wrote "Sampson the Agnos-tic."

The circulation of the blood was invented by Martin Harvey.

A problem is a figure which you do things with which are absurd, and then you prove it.

People are vaccinated by being in-articulated with lth.

A synonym is a word you can use when you don't know how to spell the one you thought of first.

Before a man can become a monk he has to have his tonsils cut.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH. INDIGESTION OR GAS

Take "Pape's Diapiesin" and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary—advertisement.
